

GENERAL FAQs:

Is GM requiring customers to sign a legal release?

Yes. This payment is being made in connection with a class-wide settlement in principle between the parties in a class action lawsuit, In re Chevrolet Bolt EV Battery Litigation, No. 2:20-13256-TBG-CI (E.D. Mich.). In order to foster recall completion, GM is providing customers who have the Software Final Remedy installed by 12/31/2023 the option to obtain early compensation via e-card, but customers who choose to receive this early payment must release the same legal claims as will be released in connection with the settlement when it is approved by the court.

Which vehicles are included in the Bolt Compensation Program?

2020 - 2022 model year Chevrolet Bolt EV and EUV vehicles involved in GM safety recall N212345944.

My vehicle/VIN is not part of N212345944, am I eligible for compensation?

A class-wide settlement in principle has been reached between the parties in a class action lawsuit, In re Chevrolet Bolt EV Battery Litigation, No. 2:20-13256-TBG-CI (E.D. Mich.). Any person who purchased or leased, other than for resale, a vehicle subject to the Bolt battery recalls is a member of the putative settlement class, meaning you may participate in this settlement unless you choose to opt out. Class members will receive any final approved settlement payment through the court settlement process.

My vehicle/VIN is part of N212345944, but I did NOT receive a letter (don't remember receiving/misplaced letter, were not on the eligibility list at time of program launch, or are a subsequent owner).
